Mrs. Mary Smith Dead.

News has been received here of the death of Mrs. Mary J. Smith at Ashland on Nov. 10. She was the widow of the late E. N. Smith and was 42 years of age. Mrs. Smith formerly lived in Pendleton.

O-W. Pay Day.

Today is the payday of the O. W. R. & N. and employees here and at Rieti have been receiving their pay envelopes. The monthly payroll of the company in this city is no small amount now.

Drinking Fountains Shut Off.

Pendleton is going in for a "bone dry" town. It is the cold weather, however, rather than the recent amendment that led the council to order all public drinking fountains shut off for the winter to prevent them from freezing.

A Little Moderation.

A slight moderation in the cold weather is noticeable today and a light west wind is giving encouragement. The mercury last night registered a minimum of eight above zero, which was one degree higher than the night before.

Still Eight Above.

Last night was just as cold as the night before and no colder, according to the official thermometer. Though many people thought this morning that a new low mark had been established. The minimum temperature last night was eight above zero.

Classmate Visits Haley.

J. Roy Haley, prominent young attorney of this city, last evening enjoyed a visit from A. G. Pollock, a young eastern attorney with whom he attended law school in Washington. D. C. Mr. Pollock is accompanying Judge Will R. King in his inspection of western irrigation projects.

Mountain Is Fined.

In police court yesterday afternoon Walter Mountain, arrested on complaint of his wife that he had assaulted her, was fined $25 on a disorderly conduct charge with the option of spending 12 days in jail. He has not yet paid the fine. John Conley paid a $10 fine this morning for being drunk.

City Will Help Out.

Through arrangements with the Pyrene Mfg. Co., the city has agreed to refill all Pyrene fire extinguishers used in homes when actual fires occur. The proposition does not apply to extinguishers used in stores or other commercial houses. C. G. Williams, representing the Pyrene Co., was here yesterday.

Hermiston Druggist Arrested.

Complaint has been filed in the local justice court by Deputy District Attorney R. I. Keator against E. W. Mack, a Hermiston druggist, charging him with selling to B. E. Cole more ethyl alcohol than permitted by law. The complaint alleges that between October 21 and November 8 he sold to Cole 2 1/2 quarts of alcohol. He has not yet been arraigned.

Answer Is Filed.

Defendant in the case of N. Berkeley vs. George A. Hartman, Jr., adm., made answer yesterday. Plaintiff is suing for an accounting of an alleged transaction in which plaintiff and the late George A. Hartman, Sr., were partners. Defendant files a counter complaint in which he asks for an accounting in another alleged transaction. Haley & Haley are attorneys for the defendant.

Elevator Man Wanted.

The civil service examination for the position of elevator conductor for the postoffice building in this city, has been postponed until December 1, 1916. Applicants for this position must be between the ages of 20 and 40 years and must have had six months' experience as an elevator conductor. The salary paid is $55 per month. Applications for the examination may be had from the secretary of the civil service commission at the postoffice in this city.

Road to La Grande Ques.

That the road between here and La Grande can now be safely traveled by automobiles is the substance of a letter written back to Pendleton from La Grande by Jean Peters, state overland representative. "Contrary to all reports and predictions," he writes, "I made the trip from Pendleton to La Grande very nicely without any stops and it took me only four hours. For the benefit of all those who may venture, I wish to say that as long as the ground is frozen they can start out safely, but if it is soft and thawing, then God help them. Cabbage Hill is in splendid shape."

Concert Postponed.

The concert at the M. E. church Thursday, November 16, has been postponed indefinitely.

Ukiah Woman at Hospital.

Mrs. Alex McKenzie of Ukiah, underwent an operation this morning at St. Anthony's hospital.

Able to Return Home.

"Grandma" Stamper, who has been confined to St. Anthony's hospital for the past two weeks with pneumonia, was able to return to her home in Athena today.

Requiring Burned Stores.

Workmen have commenced repairing the damage done by fire to the Belts building recently. The larger room will be occupied by Bond Bros. and the smaller by H. G. Zilliacus' 5-10-15 cent store.

Goes to Haines.

The Rev. E. R. Clevenger of the Baptist church, left Monday for Haines where he is conducting evangelistic services. His pulpit here will probably be filled by the Rev. Williams of Haines, on Sunday next.

New Evening Operator.

Mrs. Louise Lampkin, who was formerly connected with the local telephone office, arrived this morning to take the position of chief evening operator. She has held that position at The Dalles for the past eight months.

Taylor Files Expenses.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor today filed his statement of campaign expenses. It shows that he spent $38.60 during his campaign for re-election, all for advertising. The law requires that all candidates shall file such statements by Nov. 20.

Ready Men to Meet.

Funeral This P. M.

The funeral of the late George Eddy, who died as a result of asphyxiation, was held this afternoon at 1:30 at the Brown chapel, Rev. J. E. Snyder officiating. The garage of the McLean Auto Co., where deceased was employed, was closed during the services.

Night Hunter Arrested.

Nikola Venturina, a Greek living at Umatilla, is scheduled to appear this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Parkes to answer to a charge of night hunting. He was arrested by Deputy Warden George Tonkin for shooting ducks after sundown and his gun and birds were confiscated.

Harley For Mayor.

F. C. Harley, chairman of the Astoria Regatta and known to many Pendleton people as the man who brought the diving girls to Happy Canyon last September, was recently nominated for mayor of Astoria on both the republican and democratic tickets. The election will be held in December.

Searching For Cowboy.

The sheriff of Benton county has written from Corvallis to Sheriff Taylor asking his assistance in locating Bill Matheny, a cowboy whose wife is seriously ill in Corvallis. Matheny, who is 29 years old, came here from McMinnville with a band of horses, the latter stolen, and has not been heard from since.

Grand Officers Coming.

Henry Wortman, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, and W. G. Gleason, G. K. of R. & S. will pay an official visit to Damon lodge Knights of Pythias next Monday evening. On Tuesday night they will visit Milton. Wednesday night Weston, Thursday night Helix, Friday, Adams and Saturday, Hermiston.

Wears Chaps to Keep Warm.

Supervisor W. W. Cryder of the Umatilla forest, is the inventor of a new style of dress for auto riding in cold weather. This morning he had to travel by car from Pendleton to Gardnere to attend a stockmen's meeting at that point. Not wishing to be bitten by the frost he garbed in a pair of chaps and a heavy overcoat. Asked if he intended to make the trip on a horse he admitted he wore the chaps only for protection against the cold.

May Appoint Anderson.

Barney Anderson, commissioner-elect for Umatilla county, will in all probability be appointed by the court to finish out what remains of the unexpired term of the late Commissioner Waterman. Though no official action has been taken it is understood both Judge Marsh and Commissioner Cockburn favor getting Mr. Anderson into the harness at once so he may help arrange the budget at the December meeting. Whether or not Mr. Anderson will accept the appointment is not yet known but inasmuch as he must take office anyway January 1 it is presumed he would have no objections to qualifying sooner.

Table silver holds for woman a "treasure of her eyes, her mind, her heart."

Every woman esteems it.

It is a symbol to every guest that is bidden to sup at her house.

It lends distinction to the "breaking of bread."

It graces the whitest linen ever weaved.

It lends dignity to the simplest meal.

It takes a royalty of mind regardless of social station.

Verily, a good housewife is honored by her silverware.
